The Origin

Being in this industry for tenure as long as two decades we have seen numerous highs and lows. This period at Avita Electrical has not only improved us as a manufacturer but also ignited a desire to satisfy every customer's needs which has now become an ongoing temperament of our organization.

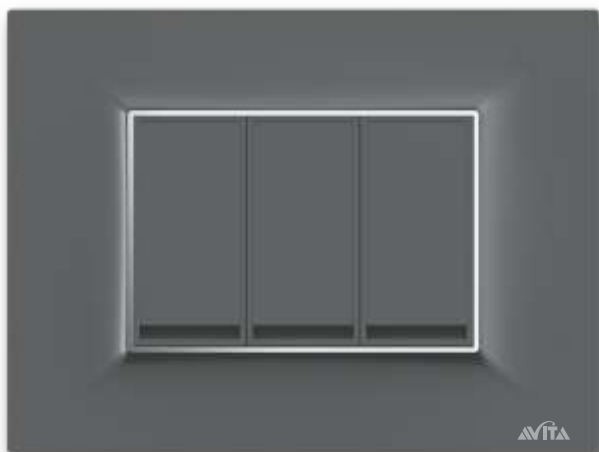

Genesis is our latest offering which marks the origin of an impeccable new vision and approach toward the domestic electrical switches & accessories industry.

We have deeply examined every aspect and crafted it to be the most desired product of all time. We have made developments in all areas ranging from refinement to finished product, from its upmarket aesthetic to its economic value.
